D-NOW WEEKEND

Last weekend was a wonderful time in the life of our youth group as Todd Wyrich came and led in our Discipleship Now weekend. Our new CYM, Jon Hoover, did a marvelous job in getting everything organized, and everyone left challenged to a nearer and closer walk with the Lord. Good job, Jon! I was also proud of the youth who shared Sunday night. When I was a teenager, the thought of getting up in front of a group of people and talking was sheer torture to me, but God used a two-minute testimony on youth Sunday when I was 16 to call me to the ministry. We are already seeing great things among our children and youth, and I am looking ahead in anticipation to what God's going to do next. I can't help but believe that next year's D-Now will have twice as many youth involved as this year.

COMING SOON TO A PULPIT NEAR YOU!

Over the course of the upcoming 10 weeks, we as a church will experience together a SERIES OF SUPER SPECTACULAR SPECIAL SERVICE SUNDAYS (OK, I'll admit it...that was corny to the core). On May 2, we will honor our senior adults with a special Senior Adult Sunday service. May 9 will be Mother's Day and Baby Dedication. On May 16, I will be gone to Georgia for Elizabeth's graduation from Brewton-Parker College (Whoo-Hooo!), and we will have special guest speakers that day (and when I know who they are, I'll let you know!).

On May 23, I'm planning a special Evangelistic Sunday. I always include an evangelistic thrust in every message, but the message on May 23 will be especially directed toward the lost to call them to salvation. Make this Sunday a matter of fervent, intense prayer, and make every effort to invite lost friends, relatives, co-workers and neighbors to be here. Offer to bring them to church and buy their lunch afterward. As Jesus put it, "Go into the highways and byways and compel them to come in, that my house may be full." That word "compel" means to do everything shy of actual force to bring someone in that they might hear the gospel.

On May 30, we will have a special Commissioning Service for our mission teams who are going out this summer. On June 6, we will celebrate the Lord's Supper, and on June 13, we will have our Vacation Bible School commencement. June 20 will be Father's Day. On June 27, we will have Stewardship Sunday, and on July 4, we will have a Patriotic Celebration.

God is doing great things in our midst, and greater things are still to come as we pray, worship and serve together!

SENIOR ADULT DAY - May 2, 2010

The first Sunday in May is recognized as Senior Adult Day by the Southern Baptist Convention. On that day, Calvary will set aside a time to honor and recognize the senior adults of our church. The senior adults of CBC are great examples of faith from which we can all learn. Many have been Christians for decades and their consistent walk with the Lord is admirable.

Help us upgrade the Sanctuary Sound System with this nice new mixer. Mark donations "Sound System" in order to contribute to this effort.
