Dear church family,

Well we have finally arrived...and all in one piece (I think). Motsy and I are very grateful to come and be a part of the Calvary Baptist Church family. I can honestly say that we felt very welcomed from the moment we set foot in Kingsport. Over the years I have worked with and ministered to dozens of churches in various ways and I really believe that this is one of the most welcoming and loving churches I've ever been in. God's hand is surely upon Calvary, and I am looking forward to what He has in store for all of us.

As I've said before, I found out very quickly that Bro. Donnie is not only a preacher; he's Elvis. Ok, ok...not the real Elvis, but he does do a pretty good job. As it turns out Bro. Donnie is not the only impersonator around the office here. Monday I found out that Mikel Caywood used to run a clown ministry. So what now? I'm working with Elvis and a clown? Somehow that seems rather fitting for the two of them, ha! I guess I'll have to come up with something here to make myself fit in. On a more serious note, I am very grateful to be working with the two of them. Calvary is very fortunate to have these two great leaders who desire to serve Christ's church. They are Godly men and I hope you pray for them often.

Saturday evening my family is pulling out and headed for Orlando, FL for a vacation at Disney World. We hate to be leaving as soon as we get here, but unfortunately we've had this date locked in for over a year and it can't be changed. A deacon at our previous church gave us a completely paid for vacation and we feel like it would be such a waste to have had him give that to us and not use it. Please pray for us (and our sanity) as we make the long trip down and back.

Once again, we are thrilled to be here. I fully expected to be sad as we left our home last week. Surprisingly, neither one of us were sad. On the drive up I said to Motsy, "You know, it feels like we are going home, not leaving home behind". She agreed. Thank you Calvary for making us feel like we are now home and not missing anything we left behind. Our kids are happy here; we are happy here, and I believe God is going to do great things!!!

Sincerely,

Jon, Motsy, Asher, and Lorelai

THANK YOU

Thank you for the food and prayers received during my recent illness. Your kindness has been greatly appreciated. God is so good!

Loretta Mixon & Family

Thank you GA's for providing the Valentine boxes. These have been given to children at the Niswonger Children's Hospital by Chaplain Debra Shields. We deeply appreciate your caring and the expression of ministry you have provided.
