*A Rose for Mom
Happy Mother's Day!*

At the Tennessee Baptist Children's Homes, we are on a mission! Our mission is to meet the needs of hurting children who have come to us because of issues such as neglect, abuse, and abandonment. Just as you and your family, have needs, the children in our cottages need:

Food – Medical Attention – Love – Clothing – Safety – Education – Shelter – Adults Who Care – Counseling – Acceptance – Spiritual Direction

Your financial gifts to the Mother's Day Offering help meet these needs and make an eternal difference! This offering supplies 35% of the funds needed annually to provide Christian homes to more than 160 children and to provide services and ministry to families in crisis.

TBCH does not use government support so that the children in our care can be taught Christian values without restrictions. We accept all children regardless of race, creed, or soci-economic background.

You can join our ministry and be on mission with us as we care for the least of these. We are at a point where your financial and prayer support is needed more today than at any time in our recent history.

Special Offering Sunday, May 9th
Envelopes will be inserted in this Sunday's bulletin.

THIS HOPE

10:30 AM May 16, 2010
Calvary Baptist Church

THIS HOPE is a group of five young men who present ministry through music. Formed in the harsh environment of the Alaskan frontier, THIS HOPE discovered a unifying bond that has spanned well over a decade. Their style is contemporary in feel, and they combine a variety of a cappella sounds along with instrumental-driven songs that speak to a variety of cultures and generations.

The Lord has opened many doors of ministry opportunities for THIS HOPE. They sing 200 concerts each year throughout the United States, and they have also ministered overseas in Spain, the Canary Islands, Cuba, Romania, and Ukraine. With an emphasis on ministry, their heart is to encourage believers and see lives changes by the gospel of Jesus Christ.

EVERYONE WELCOME!
