YOUTH CORNER

“Jesus is the Christ, the saving One. His love has made a way. The grave is overcome.” These words are part of the song by Starfield called The Saving One. It's amazing, isn't it? We deserved death and Hell, yet Christ for some reason saw fit to save us - to make a way, to bridge the gap, to overcome the grave, and to enter into a relationship with us. God is good, and I hope that above all else you have a desire to serve and to love Him.

I would also like to take this time to spread the word about the Disciple Now weekend for the youth on April 16th-18th. Disciple Now (D-Now) is an in-town retreat filled with lots of fun, Bible Study, missions, and fellowship. I would like to encourage all of our youth and their friends to attend if possible. This event usually becomes one of the yearly highlights for most youth groups. The youth will be staying in host homes (that's where you come into play). If anyone is interesting in hosting a group of 5-7 at their home that weekend please let me know. A group leader will be there as well. All you have to do is provide a floor for everyone to sleep on. If you are interested in leading a group, please let me know that too. More details will be out soon.
